APPLIED THEATRE PRAXIS

Applied Theatre Praxis Series

The series is overseen by an international board of experts and its books subjected to rigorous peer review. ATP invites writing that is focussed on “theory building”, writing that draws from the author’s praxis to generate theory for diverse manifestations of Applied Theatre.

Given OBP’s flexible publishing format, this series welcomes both traditional-length and short-form monographs. Furthermore, since OBP’s approach allows for the integration of multimedia, books in the ATP Series could contain audio-visual documentation that explicitly showcases the dynamism that is involved in theatrical research.

Proposals are invited.
